

Brownsboro Hardware & Paint Wins Philanthropy Award

Also wins Best Hardware Store in Louisville

Louisville, KY – Brownsboro Hardware & Paint has been recognized several times recently for excellence in business.

Business First Magazine ranked Brownsboro Hardware & Paint #6 among local small businesses with $45,000 in donations last year, plus several fundraisers hosted by the company.

“Our customers are responsible for these recognitions,” said Doug Carroll, owner of Brownsboro Hardware & Paint. “We have always worked hard to be the best hardware store in Louisville and the best community partner we could be. Their loyalty and support has allowed us to be the best we can be, and we appreciate them.”

In addition, Readers of The Courier Journal voted Brownsboro Hardware & Paint as “Best Hardware Store in Louisville” during a recent poll.

Known for its product quality and tremendous service, Brownsboro Hardware & Paint recently celebrated its 64th anniversary. A national hardware magazine, HBS Dealer, awarded the store its “Superstar” recognition for being the top hardware store in Kentucky over the past decade. In addition, the company recently won a Better Business Award for Ethics among small businesses.
